PUNA SUGAR CO. IN A BAD WAY

FORECLOSURE SUIT BROUGHT
YESTERDAY AND NO OPPOSITION
WILL BE BROUGHT TO IT.

Suit has been commenced in the Circuit Court against the Puna Sugar Company, Limited, for the foreclosure of the mortgage on the million dollar bond issue of the concern. Of this million, half are now outstanding in the hands of bona fide holders and half are held in trust. The Puna company held a meeting yesterday afternoon and decided that the suit should not be contested as the company has not the means to go further in the matter. Oahu has been making advances to Puna but these ceased on the 15th inst.

In the suit now entered the plaintiffs are the First National Bank of Hawaii at Honolulu, a corporation; H. Hackfeld & Company, Limited, a corporation; M. P. Robinson; H. M. von Holt, trustee for W. S. Chamberlain and A. Ahrens. The defendants are: Puna Sugar Company, Limited, a corporation; S. M. Damon and S. E. Damon, copartners doing business under the name of Bishop & Company; Oahu Sugar Company, Limited, and B. F. Dillingham & Company, Limited.

The cause of action is stated to be the neglect of the Puna company to pay the interest on the bonds which came due on July 1st last and that the taxes on the property for 1903 are still outstanding. It is stated that the Puna Sugar Company has planted and growing upon its plantation at Puna, Island of Hawaii, over 700 acres of plant cane and long rattoons and over 350 acres of short rattoons, and that the sugar cane when in condition to be harvested will be of the value of from $50,000 to $100,000. Said growing crop, it is shown, requires immediate care and attention, as also does the large stock of horses and mules for which the company is without means to buy feed stuffs. There are also laborers on the plantation who will leave if not paid. The great danger, from these conditions, that the already shrinking assets of the company will be dissipated and destroyed is pointed out as making it necessary that a receiver should be appointed. It is regarded as desirable, as well for the welfare of the public as the interests of the bondholders, that the entire enterprise should be held together and maintained as one entire property. It is prayed that the receiver be authorized to issue certificates for the purposes of his office, to constitute a first and paramount lien upon the estate.

HAWAII'S NEEDS AT WASHINGTON

KUHIO WRITES THE GOVERNOR
FOR DATA OF MONEY SPENT AND FOR MONEY REQUIRED.

Correspondence concerning the Federal appropriations for Hawaii's needs passed yesterday between Delegate Kuhlman and the Governor, there being two letters on file from the former and a reply by the latter.

The delegate asks that the Territorial Auditor be directed to make up a complete itemized statement of the money expended on lighthouses and buoys since June 14, 1900, when the Federal government took them over. He also wants a similar account of the moneys expended in dredging Honolulu harbor and channel since the same date "bearing in mind the fact that the Federal government does not dredge berths or slips."

In his second letter to the governor the delegate suggests that the plans which have been made by the Department of Public Works for the enlargement and deepening of Honolulu harbor and channel shall be forwarded to the Secretary of War along with the estimates for the cost of the work necessary. He thinks that this, with the hydrographic map of Honolulu harbor issued by the Coast Survey should satisfy the department without a special survey. The bill for the survey of Hilo harbor has already been introduced and has partly been considered by the Committee on Rivers and Harbors. The bills for public buildings at Hilo and at Honolulu have also been introduced and referred to committee, but the delegate thinks that there is more chance of getting a building at moderate cost for Hilo this coming session than there will be of getting a more expensive one at Honolulu.

In replying, after thanking the delegate for his attention to the matters touched upon, the governor says:

"Lighthouses. I will at once request of the proper Territorial officials an itemized statement of the moneys expended on the lighthouses and buoys with the expense of maintenance from June 14, 1900, and to furnish affidavits as to the vouchers, which I deem it would be improper for the Auditor to surrender, as they form part of the records of the Territory.

"Harbor Improvements. The same procedure will be taken in reference to the money that was expended by the Territory of Hawaii in dredging the harbor and channel, exclusive of berths and slips, since June 14, 1900.

"The data in the hands of the Department of Public Works in reference to the harbor improvements is not in the shape that you desire. By this mail I am forwarding to the Secretary of War a request that he authorize Lieutenant Slattery to make a project for the improvement of this harbor, which can be done owing to the data we have in our possession, without cost to the War Department. If this is granted, as soon as it is prepared I shall take pleasure in informing you of the fact. The project itself I presume will be sent to the files of the War Department."

MRS. MACFARLANE'S DEATH.
SAN FRANCISCO, August 18.—The Chronicle says: Colonel G. W. Macfarlane of Honolulu, who has been at the Hotel St. Francis for some days past, received a cablegram yesterday announcing the death of his mother, Mrs. Eliza Elliott Macfarlane, who passed away in Honolulu yesterday at the advanced age of eighty years.

Mrs. Macfarlane was one of the most notable women in the islands. She was familiarly known to her many friends as Mother Macfarlane, and was the last surviving member of what was known in the islands as the old English colony. She was married in New Zealand in 1844 to Henry Macfarlane, and the following year Mr. and Mrs. Macfarlane settled in Hawaii. At that time, where the city of Honolulu now stands there were only a few shacks and two patches. Mrs. Macfarlane resided continuously in the islands up to the time of her death, and was a witness of the development of the Hawaiian people from their semi-barbarous state to their present condition of civilization. Mrs. Macfarlane's father was for many years Surveyor-General of New Zealand, and in 1844 settled all the notable land disputes in the colony. He also served several terms in the upper house of the New Zealand Parliament.

Mrs. Macfarlane leaves four sons: Colonel G. W. Macfarlane, Henry R. Macfarlane, Fred W. Macfarlane and Clarence W. Macfarlane. A fifth son, E. C. Macfarlane, died in this country two years ago. Colonel Macfarlane, who arrived here some days ago to look after some banking matters, will cut short his stay and leave for Honolulu on the Ventura, this afternoon. He expects to return from the islands in about six weeks.
